Brigaldara Amarone della Valpolicella 2006 [6/cs] $47.95

This is a sumptuous style of Amarone with a perfumed bouquet of lavender, dark chocolate and espresso bean.

The palate reveals a ripe core of bitter chocolate and spiced fruit cake, with complicating flavours of mirabel plum and coffee. An attractive note of steeped tea persists through the finish.

Querciabella Mongrana IGT 2007 [750ml/12cs] $21.95

“The 2007 Mongrana is a new effort from the estate’s vineyards in Maremma. A blend of Sangiovese, Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot, the wine offers up an attractive array of floral red fruits in a soft, supple style. This harmonious red is best enjoyed while the fruit remains fresh. Anticipated maturity: 2009-2012. .”

Vilmart Coeur du Cuvée 2001 [6/cs] $109.95

"It starts off smelling like new shoes and caramel. But man the palate is literally unbelievable, it has to be the best wine in Champagne in 2001. It isn't large, and the finish is more a whisper than a song, but this chrome-brilliant, silvery mid-palate just sizzles in an unfathomable fluorescent buzz, washing into a kind of molten coldness, and with a second sip even the finish swells into a minty grip that actually rises vapourously into the soft palate. You need to borrow another guy's brain to help you grasp the deep-orange neon silver miasma of this baby." 3 of 3 stars, Terry Thiese catalogue 2009

Christian Moueix Saint-Emilion 2006 [750ml/12cs] $20.95

"Light garnet hue. Complex scents of black cherry, plum and sandalwood. Creamy flavors of black cherry, cassis and plum. Velvety tannins and hints of smoke in the cherry-soaked close."

Stratus White 2006 [750ml/12cs] $37.15

"Viognier makes its first appearance in the mix of varietals used in the blend of the 2006 white, which also includes sauvignon blanc, chardonnay, riesling, semillon and gewurztraminer. The Sauvignon Blanc seems most pronounced at this early stage, but there's admirable depth of flavour from the fleshier varietals. That's always the surprise of this wine: the "everyone in the pool" approach makes for a wine with layers of flavour and marvelous complexity. It also makes a wine that's lots of fun to sip and savour as it reveals itself in the glass."
4.5 of 5 stars, Vines, March/April 2009
